Dumped cars

View north from the A14 near Mere Way and Blackwell Caravan Site showing dumped, burnt out and rusting cars. In the distance is the landfill site.

2 Monday 14th February at 9am

Fen Road level crossing

Electric multiple unit train approaching Cambridge going over the level crossing. The railway was built by the Great Eastern Railway Company and opened in 1845.

3 Tuesday 15th February at 8am

Morning traffic on the High Street

Rush hour traffic queuing back into the High Street from the A14 junction. Around 1925 there was only one car in the village; a model T Ford, owned by Professor Dunn who lived in Milton House (photo 11th September). His chauffeur travelled daily to work by bike from Histon.

4 Wednesday 16th February at 6pm

Queen Anne Lodge at night

Queen Anne Lodge was once The Greyhound public house and was renamed in the 1920's by Alfie Neech. Mr Neech by all accounts was a bit of a character being a leatherworker, antique collector (and antique maker!). Mr Neech was responsible for the (in the words of the present owners) "whacky" additions; coloured fruit, pargeting etc.

5 Thursday 17th February at 10am

4 Tuesday 22nd February at 1pm
Old machinery
A piece of old agricultural machinery by the roadside in Fen Rd.

5 Tuesday 22nd February at 1pm
Burnt out car
This car was by the river in Fen Road and shows an increasing problem as it is expensive to dispose of old cars.

6 Wednesday 23rd February at 10.30am
The post arrives
Julian Stearn delivers the mail in Old School Lane. With the increasing use of email how long will the Post Office provide a daily service?

7 Thursday 24th February at 4pm
Building work at the Hospice
The old rectory was turned into the Children's Hospice and opened by Diana Princess of Wales in August 1989. The work is a major extension to the buildings. This picture was taken from the top of the fire escape stairs; the old hospice shop is on the left.

8 Friday 25th February at 12 noon
Kids R Us
Half-term week; this out-of-school club meets daily in the Community Centre Annexe. Here they are letting off steam on the new play equipment.

9 Saturday 26th February
Daffodils at Bene't Close
The Parish Council has planted daffodils throughout the village for the past few decades. The houses in Bene't Close (named after Bene't Farm), were built in 1950. A half crown was placed on the first brick laid at number 1 by an evacuee who returned to London after the war with her 3 children.
