Moheigan's quarter horses

Michaela Busby bred this lovely foal Moheigan Night Hawk (WVolf) in the paddocks off Fen Road this spring. She has been breeding these horses in the village for three years. The mare, behind, Shock 'Em Dude (Shocky), was born in Canada on a Black Foot Indian reservation. Horses are in Michaela's blood; she is half Cree Indian and half Black Cossack.

3 Tuesday 19th September at 1pm

Expected site of rowing lake

The prospect of constructing an Olympic standard rowing lake has existed for several years. If the project materialises the farmland seen in this view, north of Fen Road, will disappear under the rowing lake.

4 Tuesday 19th September at 1pm

Panic petrol buying

The petrol supplies had returned to normal several days earlier. However, after a joke on a South Wales radio station, that blockades were returning, panic spread. Within hours Tesco's was under siege again, with queues going back over the A14 roundabout as far as the Science Park.

5 Wednesday 20th September at 3pm

Willow Crescent

Willow Crescent, constructed in the 1960's, is named after the house and farm which once stood behind the Waggon and Horses. This view is taken from the site of the old village pond which was drained in the 1930's.

St Ives Railway Line
The St Ives Railway Line runs along the southern boundary of the Parish of Milton. Although closed to passengers from 1970, it was used for fruit deliveries to Chivers in Histon until 1983, and remained open until 1992 carrying sand from Fen Drayton to the cement works at King's Cross. Now ideas are being put forward for guided buses or heavy rail to use this route. In the meantime the rose hips and wild flowers make it a lovely walk. This is the view looking towards the Regional College from the area near Garry Drive.
